THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE CONTEST - KONKURS JĘZYKA ANGIELSKIEGO

Patronat naukowy: Instytut Filologii Angielskiej UJ w Krakowie

Regionalne Stowarzyszenie Oświatowe "KAGANEK" Regionalny Ośrodek Doskonalenia Nauczycieli "WOM" w Bielsku-Białej

Klasy I i II szkół ponadpodstawowych Czas trwania konkursu – 75 minut. Podczas konkursu nie wolno używać żadnych pomocy naukowych!

Good Luck!

				Zadania po 3 punkty
1.	"I'm a good student A) am I	?" B) am not I	C) aren't I	D) are you
2.	You use " a " ti 1. How nice! 2. What surprise! 3. What shame! 4. What pity!
3.	<ul> <li>A) 1</li> <li>The odd ones are: where, were, we're she, sea, see hair, hear, here know, no, now</li> <li>A) were, sea, here, r</li> <li>B) we're, she, hair, r</li> </ul>	, , ,		D) 4
4.	<ul> <li>"A little gratitude is in order, Jonathan", the teacher said.</li> <li>The teacher</li> <li>A) ordered Jonathan to be grateful.</li> <li>B) was not satisfied with Jonathan's expression of gratitude.</li> <li>C) wanted Jonathan to show gratitude.</li> <li>D) thought that Jonathan was not orderly.</li> </ul>
5.	Adam: "I reckon the trees are greener in spring than in winter."Leila: "You think?"Leila is:A) curiousB) worriedC) sarcasticD) sad
6.	<ul><li>"Jane didn't tell you a thing!", Jane:</li><li>A) didn't tell you one thing!</li><li>B) didn't tell you anything!</li><li>D) told you lies!</li></ul>
7.	When you are in Ire A) Dublin	land you cannot visit: B) Limerick	C) Cork	D) Cardiff

<ul> <li>9. Great Expectations was written in, century. A) XVII B) XVIII C) XIX D) the first half of XX</li> <li>10. In Great Expectations, Pip's sister when saying: "If it hadn 't been for me, you'd have been to the churchyard long ago, and stayed there." A) wated him dead. B) thought he was ungrateful. C) was angry by his visits to the churchyard. D) expected him to never come back. Zadania po 4 punkty</li> <li>11. Here are 10 signs showing you're more intelligent than other people. A) way B) ways C) a way D) bit</li> <li>12. "All students in my class driving lessons this year!" A) take B) took C) are taking D) had</li> <li>13. "Oh, he mentioned it in passing the other day." A) take B) took C) are taking D) had</li> <li>13. "Oh, he mentioned it in the exam. B) He mentioned it in the sasion. C) He mentioned it with passion. C) He mentioned it with passion. C) He mentioned it will crossing the street.</li> <li>14. You can wear: a glasses b. smile c. a hole d. socks A) a, b, c, d B) b, d C) a, b, c D) a, c, d</li> <li>15. Match: 1. Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send the hear into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy. 2. Heated discussions might be fun to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't rain your reputation with a basty comment habout a sansitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds. 3. Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable. 4. We all have that one fired who can go from being single, to having a girl friend a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details. 5. The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but one they yanish, they might to be gone forever. The Internet desen't forget, and people can make a screenshot.</li></ul>	8.	<ul> <li>"Travelling is not easy these days, I find it most stressful, and I think airlines deliberately make it harder with all the red tape, hope all goes well."</li> <li>A) Airlines form artificial boundaries.</li> <li>B) Airlines require all luggage to have red tape all over it.</li> <li>C) Airlines are too bureaucratic.</li> <li>D) Airlines make it harder for customers to complain.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>"If it hadn't been for me, you'd have been to the churchyard long ago, and stayed there." <ul> <li>A) wanted him dead.</li> <li>B) thought he was ungrateful.</li> <li>C) was angry by his visits to the churchyard.</li> <li>D) expected him to never come back.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Zadania po 4 punkty 11. Here are 10 signs showing you're more intelligent than other people. <ul> <li>A) way</li> <li>B) took</li> <li>C) a way</li> <li>D) bit</li> </ul> </li> <li>12. "All students in my class driving lessons this year!" <ul> <li>A) take</li> <li>B) took</li> <li>C) are taking</li> <li>D) had</li> </ul> </li> <li>13. "Oh, he mentioned it in passing the other day." <ul> <li>A) He mentioned it in the exam.</li> <li>B) He mentioned it with passion.</li> <li>C) He mentioned it will ecrossing the street.</li> </ul> </li> <li>14. You can wear: <ul> <li>a. glasses</li> <li>b. smile</li> <li>c. a hole</li> <li>d. socks</li> <li>A) a, b, c, d</li> <li>B) b, d</li> <li>C) a, b, c</li> <li>D) a, c, d</li> </ul> </li> <li>15. Match: <ul> <li>1. Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy.</li> <li>2. Heated discussions might be fin to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics of your feeds</li> <li>3. Take extra steps to vafe you are of yous going on — the other 463 friends don't need to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know that's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details.</li> <li>5. The flecting index and messages might promote more anthentic communication, but once they vanish, they might not be gone forever. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. He conscious that all images might be retrieved later.</li> <li>6. Take a step away from devices and nutrure relationships the old-fashion</li></ul></li></ul>	9.	-		•	D) the first half of XX
<ul> <li>11. Here are 10 signs showing you're more intelligent than other people. A) way B) ways C) a way D) bit</li> <li>12. "All students in my class driving lessons this year!" A) take B) took C) are taking D) had</li> <li>13. "Oh, he mentioned it in passing the other day." A) He mentioned it in passing the other day." A) He mentioned it in the exam. B) He mentioned it in the exam. B) He mentioned it with passion. C) He mentioned it casually. D) He mentioned it will crossing the street.</li> <li>14. You can wear: a. glasses b. smile c. a hole d. socks A) a, b, c, d B) b, d C) a, b, c D) a, c, d</li> <li>15. Match: 1. Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy. 2. Heated discussions might be fruit to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds. 3. Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable. 4. We all have that one friend who can go from being single, to having a girl-friend/a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details. 5. The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but once they vanish, they might hot be gone forver. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. Be conscious that all images might be retrieved later. 6. Take a step away from devices and nutrure relationships the old-fashioned way: discuss issues in private, not on social media where everyone is witness to your dirty laundry. a. Would gradma approve? b. Silence the relationship staus. c. Master the relat of talking. d. If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all. e. Beware of disappear</li></ul>	10.	<ul> <li>"If it hadn't been for me, you'd have been to the churchyard long ago, and stayed there."</li> <li>A) wanted him dead.</li> <li>B) thought he was ungrateful.</li> <li>C) was angry by his visits to the churchyard.</li> <li>D) expected him to never come back.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>A) way</li> <li>B) ways</li> <li>C) a way</li> <li>D) bit</li> <li>12. "All students in my class driving lessons this year!" <ul> <li>A) take</li> <li>B) took</li> <li>C) are taking</li> <li>D) had</li> </ul> </li> <li>13. "Oh, he mentioned it in passing the other day." <ul> <li>A) He mentioned it in the exam.</li> <li>B) He mentioned it with passion.</li> <li>C) He mentioned it with passion.</li> <li>C) He mentioned it casually.</li> <li>D) He mentioned it while crossing the street.</li> </ul> </li> <li>14. You can wear: <ul> <li>a. glasses</li> <li>b. smile</li> <li>c. a hole</li> <li>d. socks</li> <li>A) a, b, c, d</li> <li>B) b, d</li> <li>C) a, b, c</li> <li>D) a, c, d</li> </ul> </li> <li>15. Match: <ul> <li>1. Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy.</li> <li>2. Heated discussions might be fun to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds.</li> <li>3. Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable.</li> <li>4. We all have that one friend who can go from being single, to having a girl-friend/a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details.</li> <li>5. The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but once they vanish, they might not be gone forever. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. Be conscious that all images might be retrieved later.</li> <li>6. Take a step away from devices and nurture relationships the old-fashioned way: discuss issues in private, not on social media where everyone is witness to your dirty laundry.</li> <li>a. Would grandma approve?</li> <li>b. Silenc</li></ul></li></ul>	11.	Here are 10 signs	showing you're n	nore intelligent than of	her people.
<ul> <li>A) take</li> <li>B) took</li> <li>C) are taking</li> <li>D) had</li> </ul> 13. "Oh, he mentioned it in passing the other day." <ul> <li>A) He mentioned it in the exam.</li> <li>B) He mentioned it with passion.</li> <li>C) He mentioned it with passion.</li> <li>C) He mentioned it casually.</li> <li>D) He mentioned it while crossing the street.</li> </ul> 14. You can wear: <ul> <li>a. glasses</li> <li>b. smile</li> <li>c. a hole</li> <li>d. socks</li> <li>A) a, b, c, d</li> <li>B) b, d</li> <li>C) a, b, c</li> <li>D) a, c, d</li> </ul> 15. Match: <ul> <li>1. Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy.</li> <li>2. Heated discussions might be fun to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds.</li> <li>3. Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable.</li> <li>4. We all have that one friend who can go from being single, to having a girl-friend/a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details.</li> <li>5. The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but once they vanish, they might not be gone forever. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. Be conscious that all images might be retrieved later.</li> <li>6. Take a step away from devices and nurture relationships the old-fashioned way: discuss issues in private, not on social media where everyone is witness to your dirty laundry.</li> <li>a. Would grandma approve?</li> <li>b. Silence the relationship status.</li> <li>c. Master the art of talking.</li> <li>d. If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all.</li> <li>e. Beware of disapp</li></ul>		_		-
<ul> <li>A) take</li> <li>B) took</li> <li>C) are taking</li> <li>D) had</li> </ul> 13. "Oh, he mentioned it in passing the other day." <ul> <li>A) He mentioned it in the exam.</li> <li>B) He mentioned it with passion.</li> <li>C) He mentioned it with passion.</li> <li>C) He mentioned it casually.</li> <li>D) He mentioned it while crossing the street.</li> </ul> 14. You can wear: <ul> <li>a. glasses</li> <li>b. smile</li> <li>c. a hole</li> <li>d. socks</li> <li>A) a, b, c, d</li> <li>B) b, d</li> <li>C) a, b, c</li> <li>D) a, c, d</li> </ul> 15. Match: <ul> <li>1. Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy.</li> <li>2. Heated discussions might be fun to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds.</li> <li>3. Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable.</li> <li>4. We all have that one friend who can go from being single, to having a girl-friend/a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details.</li> <li>5. The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but once they vanish, they might not be gone forever. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. Be conscious that all images might be retrieved later.</li> <li>6. Take a step away from devices and nurture relationships the old-fashioned way: discuss issues in private, not on social media where everyone is witness to your dirty laundry.</li> <li>a. Would grandma approve?</li> <li>b. Silence the relationship status.</li> <li>c. Master the art of talking.</li> <li>d. If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all.</li> <li>e. Beware of disapp</li></ul>	1.0	- 		1
<ul> <li>13. "Oh, he mentioned it in passing the other day." <ul> <li>A) He mentioned it in the exam.</li> <li>B) He mentioned it with passion.</li> <li>C) He mentioned it with passion.</li> <li>D) He mentioned it while crossing the street.</li> </ul> </li> <li>14. You can wear: <ul> <li>a. glasses</li> <li>b. smile</li> <li>c. a hole</li> <li>d. socks</li> <li>A) a, b, c, d</li> <li>B) b, d</li> <li>C) a, b, c</li> <li>D) a, c, d</li> </ul> </li> <li>15. Match: <ul> <li>1. Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy.</li> <li>2. Heated discussions might be fun to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds.</li> <li>3. Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable.</li> <li>4. We all have that one friend who can go from being single, to having a girl-friend/a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details.</li> <li>5. The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but once they vanish, they might not be gone forever. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. Be conscious that all images might be retrieved later.</li> <li>6. Take a step away from devices and nutrue relationships the old-fashioned way: discuss issues in private, not on social media where everyone is witness to your dirty laundry.</li> <li>a. Would grandma approve?</li> <li>b. Silence the relationship status.</li> <li>c. Master the art of talking.</li> <li>d. If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all.</li> <li>e. Beware of disappearing apps.</li> <li>f. Avoid posting personal information.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	12.			•	D) had
<ul> <li>A) He mentioned it in the exam.</li> <li>B) He mentioned it with passion.</li> <li>C) He mentioned it casually.</li> <li>D) He mentioned it casually.</li> <li>D) He mentioned it while crossing the street.</li> </ul> 14. You can wear: <ul> <li>a. glasses</li> <li>b. smile</li> <li>c. a hole</li> <li>d. socks</li> <li>A) a, b, c, d</li> <li>B) b, d</li> <li>C) a, b, c</li> <li>D) a, c, d</li> </ul> 15. Match: <ol> <li>Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy.</li> <li>Heated discussions might be fun to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds.</li> <li>Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable.</li> <li>We all have that one friend who can go from being single, to having a girl-friend/a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details.</li> <li>The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but once they vanish, they might not be gone forever. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. Be conscious that all images might be retrieved later.</li> <li>Take a step away from devices and nurture relationships the old-fashioned way: discuss issues in private, not on social media where everyone is witness to your dirty laundry.</li> <li>Would grandma approve?</li> <li>Silence the relationship status.</li> <li>Master the art of talking.</li> <li>If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all.</li> <li>Beware of disappearing apps.</li> <li>Avoid posting personal information.</li> </ol>		A) lake	D ) 100K	C) are laking	D) naa
<ul> <li>a. glasses b. smile c. a hole d. socks D) a, c, d</li> <li>15. Match: <ol> <li>Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy.</li> <li>Heated discussions might be fun to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds.</li> <li>Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable.</li> <li>We all have that one friend who can go from being single, to having a girl-friend/a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details.</li> <li>The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but once they vanish, they might not be gone forever. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. Be conscious that all images might be retrieved later.</li> <li>Take a step away from devices and nurture relationships the old-fashioned way: discuss issues in private, not on social media where everyone is witness to your dirty laundry.</li> <li>Would grandma approve?</li> <li>Silence the relationship status.</li> <li>Master the art of talking.</li> <li>If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all.</li> <li>Beware of disappearing apps.</li> <li>Avoid posting personal information.</li> </ol> </li> </ul>	13.	<ul><li>A) He mentioned it in the exam.</li><li>B) He mentioned it with passion.</li><li>C) He mentioned it casually.</li></ul>
<ul> <li>A) a, b, c, d</li> <li>B) b, d</li> <li>C) a, b, c</li> <li>D) a, c, d</li> </ul> 15. Match: <ol> <li>Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy.</li> <li>Heated discussions might be fun to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds. <ul> <li>Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable.</li> <li>We all have that one friend who can go from being single, to having a girl-friend/a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details.</li> <li>The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but once they vanish, they might not be gone forever. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. Be conscious that all images might be retrieved later.</li> <li>Take a step away from devices and nurture relationships the old-fashioned way: discuss issues in private, not on social media where everyone is witness to your dirty laundry.</li> <li>Would grandma approve?</li> <li>Silence the relationship status.</li> <li>Master the art of talking.</li> <li>If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all.</li> <li>Beware of disappearing apps.</li> <li>Avoid posting personal information.</li> </ul></li></ol>	14.	You can wear:
<ul> <li>15. Match: <ol> <li>Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy.</li> <li>Heated discussions might be fun to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds.</li> <li>Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable.</li> <li>We all have that one friend who can go from being single, to having a girl-friend/a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details.</li> <li>The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but once they vanish, they might not be gone forever. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. Be conscious that all images might be retrieved later.</li> <li>Take a step away from devices and nurture relationships the old-fashioned way: discuss issues in private, not on social media where everyone is witness to your dirty laundry.</li> <li>Would grandma approve?</li> <li>Silence the relationship status.</li> <li>Master the art of talking.</li> <li>If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all.</li> <li>Beware of disappearing apps.</li> <li>Avoid posting personal information.</li> </ol> </li> </ul>		a. glasses	b. smile	c. a hole	d. socks
<ol> <li>Asking this question before posting or commenting can save many people from a social blunder. If it is likely to send her heart into palpitations, it is probably not shareworthy.</li> <li>Heated discussions might be fun to read, but you are exposing yourself to a world of prying eyes. Don't ruin your reputation with a hasty comment about a sensitive topic. Keep religion and politics off your feeds.</li> <li>Take extra steps to safeguard your privacy. Be aware that location-tracking apps and background images can leave you vulnerable.</li> <li>We all have that one friend who can go from being single, to having a girl-friend/a boy-friend, and back to single in the span of two days. Close friends will know what's going on — the other 463 friends don't need to know the details.</li> <li>The fleeting images and messages might promote more authentic communication, but once they vanish, they might not be gone forever. The Internet doesn't forget, and people can make a screenshot. Be conscious that all images might be retrieved later.</li> <li>Take a step away from devices and nurture relationships the old-fashioned way: discuss issues in private, not on social media where everyone is witness to your dirty laundry.</li> <li>Would grandma approve?</li> <li>Silence the relationship status.</li> <li>Master the art of talking.</li> <li>If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all.</li> <li>Beware of disappearing apps.</li> <li>Avoid posting personal information.</li> </ol>		A) a, b, c, d	B) b, d	C) a, b, c	D) a, c, d
	15.
LIONS 2023 - 2

16.	"If, for one, David found out about you, there'd be a huge scandal." "for one" meaning:
	A) suddenly	B) just once	C) for exam	ple	D) anyway
17.	<ul> <li>a) long-haul</li> <li>2. Your is the planal schedule</li> <li>3. If you havelug</li> <li>a) excess</li> <li>4. You can admire here</li> <li>a) view</li> <li>5. The American equition a) round trip</li> <li>6. On a beach people of a) in high chairs</li> <li>7. A journey from Eure</li> <li>a) ferry crossing</li> <li>A) 1b, 2a, 3b, 4a, 5b, 6</li> </ul>	ggage, it means your bag b) excessive the indigenous b) culture valent of a 'return ticket b) two-way often sit b) on deck chairs rope to America on a shi	ggage weighs '' is a tic p is called a . 5, 5a, 6b, 7b	ket.	is allowed.
18.	William Shakespeare i A) Othello		C) Ulysses		D) Henry III
19.	<ol> <li>2 slapped Pip's</li> <li>3 was married to</li> <li>4 worked at the</li> <li>5 had a baby cat</li> <li>6 called the Kna</li> <li>A) 1a, 2f, 3e, 4d, 5c, 6</li> </ol>	he sun for many years. face hard. o a blacksmith. forge, and then in the quilled Pip.	uarries.	a. Miss Ha b. Pip c. Joe d. Orlick e. Mrs Joe f. Estella
20.	According to Great Expectations , the true sentences are: 1. Jaggers defended his housekeeper, when she had been accused of murder. 2. Miss Havisham felt responsible for Estella breaking Pip's heart. 3. Magwitch, the convict, was Estella's father. 4. Miss Havisham was left by her husband on her wedding day. 5. Pip's benefactor demanded Pip change his name. A) 2, 3, 4, 5 B) 1, 3, 4 C) 3, 4 D) 1, 2, 3 Zadania po 5 punktów
21.	2. The species are on	he brink of extinction. the brink of extinction		10	D) maith an 1 an 2
22	A) 1	B) 2	C) both 1and		D) neither 1 or 2
22.		lieved fairies lived in the was eaten by foxes, or B) many others		used to lea	D) likewise

- 23. The company issued a ..... concerning the cause of the explosion. You may wear a ..... necklace and a simple dress to the party. A) statement B) assertion C) declaration D) revelation
- 24. Mum: "Ice cream after lunch? Now you're talking!"A) Mum is angryB) Mum is impatientC) Mum is approvingD) Mum is surprised
- 25. "Finn, you're gonna put your pal, Kirby, into Number 10, ain't you?" Finn wants Kirby to:A) play in the national football team.
  - B) become the Prime Minister of the UK.
  - C) take part in the beauty contest.
  - D) win £10 million in the lotto.
- 26. "May the roof above never fall ..... and may we below never fall ....."
  A) apart, up
  B) through, through
  C) away, away
  D) down, out
- 27. "Guys, we have a busy schedule, so get ready to live out of your suitcases for the next week or so!"
  - A) pack a lot of food
  - B) sell goods straight from your luggage
  - C) never unpack your luggage
  - D) travel without suitcases

28. "From flab to fab" is about:

- A) telling stories
- B) slimming and getting fit
- C) achieving success
- D) making documentaries into feature films

29. According to Great Expectations the correct words are:

- 1. Pip became Joe's ......
- a) apprentice b) son 2. "I am leaving ..... London tomorrow, Miss Havisham."
- a) to b) for
- 3. Pip watched Estella ..... the old respectable house.
- a) enter b) entered
- 4. While he was dining there, as had happened ..... other occasions, Pip could not stop noticing Jagger's housekeeper.
- a) by b) on
- 5. Pip couldn't imagine ever ..... Estella again.
- a) leaving b) to leave
- A) 1b, 2b, 3a, 4b, 5b B) 1a, 2b, 3a, 4b, 5a C) 1a, 2b, 3a, 4b, 5b D) 1b, 2a, 3a, 4b, 5a

30. According to Great Expectations the proverb that summarises the novel is:

- A) Too many cooks spoil the broth.
- B) One good turn deserves another.
- C) Practice makes perfect.
- D) A watched pot never boils.

© RSO "Kaganek" Bielsko-Biała